Economic results of selected agricultural products in 2005–2008

Author

Dr. Eng. Aldona Skarżyńska

THE ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL CONDITIONS OF THE DEVELOPMENT OF THE POLISH FOOD ECONOMY FOLLOWING POLAND’S ACCESSION TO THE EUROPEAN UNION

Warsaw 2010
Contents

I. Introduction ......................................................................................................................... 7
II. Production and market conditions in agriculture in 2005–2008 ......................................... 9
III. Materials and research methodology ............................................................................ 12
IV. Economic results of agricultural production activities in 2005–2008 .............................. 20
   1. Activity results in farms recurring in the survey years ................................................. 20
   2. Activity results in the best, the average and the weakest holdings ............................. 60
V. Summary .......................................................................................................................... 103